What Is Memorial Day?

Not sure I could define it any better than this bloke!

Please don't beat my head in for not supporting the troops. You see, I don't support the troops, because I don't support the "wars" they are fighting. I'm sorry if that offends you to the point of violence against me, but here are the facts:

- 1) I don't support murder, and therefore don't support the murderers.
- 2) I don't support rape, and therefore don't support the rapists.
- 3) I don't support nation building, and therefore I don't support the nation builders.
- 4) I don't support theft, and therefore don't support the thieves.
- 5) I don't support the war, and therefore don't support the warriors.

Is it such a horrific thought that our men in uniform aren't acting in the best interest of the people of the United States? That they aren't protecting our rights, but instead infringing on all other peoples rights in the name of corporatism? Or that they are now poisoned, locked, and loaded to do the same to the people of America... their own people?

Has the madness of being a privileged American become such a barrier to logic, reason, and self-awareness that we so easily conform with such emotional fervor to this silly catchphrase – “Support the troops, not the war” – and then beat down all those who see the complete paradox of that completely illogical, irrational slogan?

By supporting the troops, we the taxpayers are in fact supporting the wars.

Take it for what you will, but... I do not support the troops because I do not support the wars!

And that should be a good enough reason for any decent, thinking human being.

Gonna beat me up now and call me an un-American – terrorist – insurgent?

P.S... War is peace.

It's pretty hilarious when you can post sentiments similar to this on your Facebook page and have people cursing in blind rage from one sentence.

Thanks for the post, Clint.

The ones who 'served' before have an excuse: They didn't have the Internet, and were drafted. Today's they are VOLUNTEERS. Most of them for the 'benefits' and 'education' (what it feels to end inside a casket. Shredded), but still too many for the 'thrill of the kill', unaccountable to 'justice'. Get them back and put them to WORK for a living instead, and make them feed themselves, so we can keep that Trillion in our pockets.

I'll never be sorry for speaking the truth and not following blindly the orders of tyrants.

I do not thank you for your "service" to the Federal US corporation, any more than the Vietnamese thank you for your "service" to them.
